🐾 Good Morning 🐾
These are your East Juniata High School
Daily Announcements for
Wednesday, March 14, 2018
Today is Day 6

The schedule for today is as follows:
    4:30 - Home varsity baseball scrimmage with Shamokin.

Students who are selling R&K subs and Butterbraids must have their order forms and payment turned in to Mrs. Hund tomorrow, Thursday March 15. If you don't have yours, please see her by the end of the day to ensure you can still turn them in on Monday.

EJHS's TAG! is pleased to announce our upcoming musical, "Annie", to be performed this Friday and Saturday, starting at 7:00! Tickets are available in Mr. Ritzman's room and may be purchased at the door. Our musical showcases the talents of EJ's artists, our builders, our musicians, and our actors! Come show your support and enjoy an evening of musical entertainment!

Looking for financial aid opportunities? Log into you Career Cruising account to start the process. Don't know how to log in? Talk to Ms. Straub or Mr. Sliski.

The Health & Wellness Club will be meeting tomorrow immediately after school in Mrs. Graybill's room to work on the hospital service project. Please plan to attend!

The National Honor Society will be sponsoring a 5K Run/Walk for Austin Parker on Saturday, April 7th beginning at 10:00. Registration will begin at 9:00. Pre-registration will cost $20. The day of the race the cost will be $25.00. All proceeds will be donated to the family of Austin Parker.
Also, a SpringFest will be held the same day from 1:00-3:00.
Donation of $3 is appreciated and all proceeds will be donated to Austin Parker's recovery. Parents/Guardians must attend the event for the child to participate. Children age 1-12 years old are welcome! For more information, see any NHS student or stop by the office.

HACC will be visiting EJ on March 26th at 8:45 AM. Interested students should sign up outside of guidance.

Prom committee meeting on tomorrow morning at 7:45 am in Room 130. Remember to bring your sub/sandwich orders and money to turn in.